Garnett Rites Are Held Today

Member of Old Virginia Family Dies at Home in King and Queen.

Funeral services for James W. Garnett, 83, member of an old and prominent Virginia family, who died yesterday afternoon at his home, "Peach Grove," King and Queen county, were held at 11:30 o'clock today from Upper King and Queen church, with interment in the church cemetery. The officiating minister was Rev. C. E. Taylor, pastor of the church.

Mr. Garnett was a brother of the late Muscoe H. Garnett, of Richmond, and was well known in this city, where he had many relatives.

Mr. Garnett was a son of the late Reuben Meriwether Garnett and Mrs. Elizabeth Ilen Williams Garnett, both parents being widely related among families long conspicuous in the colony and commonwealth of Virginia. His mother was a representative of an old Fredericksburg family.

His grandfather was Reuben Meriwether Garnett, Sr., and his great-grandfather was Reuben Garnett, of "Liberty Hall," Essex county.

James W. Garnett married Miss Laura Levering, of the well-known Baltimore family of that name. Mrs. Garnett died several years ago.

Surviving Mr. Garnett are a daughter, Mrs. John W. Taylor, of "Peach Grove," King and Queen county; and a granddaughter, Laura Garnett Taylor.

A Richmond kinsman is Dr. Garnett Ryland, of the faculty of the University of Richmond, who was among those attending the funeral services.

Mrs. Blanche Adams Chapman,
Smithfield, Va.

Dear Mrs. Chapman, —

Some time ago Mrs. P. W. Hiden of Newport News suggested that I write you in reference to some research work to be done on my Garnett family line.

It would please me very much if my Zachariah Garnett could be linked with the Garnetts of Virginia and it would seem there should be a blood tie between the two families since both carry the same given names like Muscoe and Toliver (Taliaferro) but so far I haven't proved any such tie. Zachariah Garnett is not mentioned in Essex Co. wills as an heir though several Garnetts left no wills or else mention only infant heirs.

During such research work, I would like you also to check on this name Margaret Moore, wife of Zachariah Garnett. This is all I know of her yet I believe she is a sister of Thomas Moore — b. 1777 in Spottsylvania Co. and died Dec. 22, 1808 either in Va. or Ky. His wife, Ann Roberts Moore remarried and died in Ky. in 1887 at the age of 106 years.

This Thomas Moore is my husband's ancestor and we, do not know his parents name but since he and my Margaret Moore Garnett were born in the same county and since her oldest son was named Thomas Moore Garnett (Bible record) it would certainly seem that this Thomas was her brother and that probably her father's name was also Thomas. At least there will be no harm in looking!

I will appreciate your help and am glad to pay reasonable charges for such work.

Sincerely yours,

Grace Owens Moore.
(Mrs. O. L.)
